NEW PUBLICATIONS. THE GREAT STORY OF THE YEAR. CHARLES READE

DION POUCUCAULT.
Authors Copyright Edition.
Printed from Advance Sheets.

I vol. Syo. With Prof. Page Hustrations by George Du MauPrinted from Advance Sheets.

This story has an aixed the liveless interest while appearing ersisily in this country and in Regione. It is what might be expected from the united efforts of the most dramatic of living novelists and the roots nuccessful of living dramatics. Its elaborate and skill tilly unanged plot, its intensely dramatic estimations, its guastiant encousaint of living dramatics. Its eithering and clearly drawn characters and the vigor and pleturesquences of the style, all combine to produce one of the most fancinating of narces, and beyond question the great scory of the year.

"A story or remarkable power, with striking and well surtaned dramatic effects." — Philanethyla from.

"Foul Play is written in Charles Reade's most dashing, wherous, rady namare, and contains an intensely dramatic and exciling plot." — Sureak County Journal.

"The plot is exceedingly well managed, and the story is sensational in tone and of absorbing interest."—Chicago Post.
